

RECREATION PROFESSIONAL OF THE YEAR AWARD

An award that recognises an individual's contribution to the recreation industry.

The 2017 South Australian Recreation Industry Professional of the Year is coordinated by Recreation SA to recognise and reward individuals who have made a significant contribution to the recreation industry in South Australia. Nominations for this award must be made by each standing committee of Recreation SA and passed to the Board of Recreation SA. Organisations and individuals cannot nominate themselves, the nomination process is only through a committee of Recreation SA.

Closing Date: March 10 2017

The individual may make a contribution by

- Positively reshaping an organisation
- Successfully staging an event that increases the participation and profile of recreation in South Australia
- Developed a new recreation initiative
- Served on Boards or Committees and made a positive contribution that led to an increase in participation in Recreation or shaped an organisation in South Australia

The individual may be a volunteer or paid employee.

Nominations for this award must be made by each standing committee of Recreation SA and passed to the Board of Recreation SA.

Assessment

Applications will be judged by industry professionals from Recreation SA.

Presentation of Awards

The award will be presented at the 2017 Recreation, Parks and Leisure Conference, on April 3.
